What's on in November?

If its golf, tennis, squash or croquet then C ex Urunqa is the place you need to be. Offering a superb location alongside the picturesque Kalang River, Urunqa is just a short 20 minute drive South of Coffs Harbour.

Country Bluegrass Rockabilly band Chris Cook is setting the pub stage on fire! This show is FREE at the C ex Urunqa on the 5th November. Be sure to be at the venue by 7:30pm for the head banging experience.

Welcome to Urunqa Heads Holiday Park. It really is the perfect place to enjoy your next holiday.

A hidden holiday gem far removed from the commercialism of the North Coast. Urunqa is a small town on the Mid North Coast region of NSW, in Bellingen Shire. The town is South of Coffs Harbour and Sawtell and North of Nambucca Heads. The place name, Urunqa, is derived from an Aboriginal word meaning 'long beach'. The Urunqa boardwalk, leading out to the beach, was rebuilt in 1988 and extended in 1991. The full boardwalk was completed in 2007. In November 2010, a further section of boardwalk was completed. This extension finishes at the mouth of the river and has taken the length of the boardwalk to almost 1 kilometer. The weather is usually perfect in November so come and enjoy Urunqa hospitality at its best.

What's on at the pub

The Ocean View Hotel is walking distance, just up the road from Urunqa Heads Holiday Park. We get great feedback from our guests who are impressed with the relaxed atmosphere, fine food and cheer. A great place to come and watch the race that stops the nation on Tuesday 1st November. The pub has performers entertaining regularly including the great talent of local rock band Rocksalt are not to be missed. Choose from the scrumptious meals from The View Restaurant open each night or a pub pizza available from 5pm-8pm Wednesday to Sunday, dine in or takeaway. So bring your family & friends and enjoy the relaxed and friendly atmosphere mixing with locals and other holiday makers just up from Urunqa Heads Holiday Parks doorstep.
